NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Subject: FW: New premises licence application received - Tiger Bites, 12 Unity Place, Oldbury, West Midlands, B69 4DB

Good afternoon,

I write with reference to the attached application concerning the premises named above.

The licensable activities applied for are:

Late Night Refreshment (Indoors): Monday – Sunday 23:00 to 03:00

Hours premises open to the public: Monday – Sunday 16:00 to 03:00

Environmental Health have serious concerns about the potential disturbance and nuisance which could be caused to nearby residents. Whilst considering the application I have reviewed the premises history; in 2007 an application was submitted for this premises to be used as a takeaway business, the planning officer recommended refusal based on the 'detriment to occupants of nearby properties with regards noise, fumes, disturbance and increased comings and goings'.

The planning permission in 2007 also notes the development is in a conservation area, notes the proximity of residents to the Premises and that the flats next to the Premises are sheltered accommodation. I have attached a copy of the committee report from 2007.

Permission was granted- with a temporary permission for a period of 2 years and restrictions on hours 'in order to safeguard nearby residents from undue noise and smells.'

The hours currently permitted being 11:30- 22:30, Monday- Sunday.

Whilst planning and licensing are separate regimes, some of the considerations raised when dealing with planning permission are wholly relevant to consideration of a licence application.

Given the substantial hours requested and the significant increase in operating times for the site along with the current granted planning permission and the proximity of residents, Environmental Health contend that this application would undermine the prevention of public nuisance objective contained within the Licensing Act 2003.

Thank you

xxxxxxxxxx

Committee: 16th May 2007 Ward: Oldbury

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

Londonderry Lane Smethwick West Midlands	Proposed change of use to hot & cold food take away. 12 Unity Place Oldbury West Midlands B69 4DB
--	--

Date Valid Application Received 27th February 2007

1. Recommendations

Refusal on the grounds of detriment to the occupiers of the adjacent flats by reason of noise, fumes, disturbance and increased comings and goings

2. Observations

Consideration of this application was deferred at your 28th March Committee meeting for further discussion.

The application site is situated on the eastern side of Unity Place, Oldbury. The site relates to the former Lloyds Chemist, which is a listed building, and is on the edge of a predominantly retail area, with a health centre to the north, and a block of sheltered elderly persons flats adjoining the site to the south (St Davids Court). The property has a former garden at the rear with access from Simpson Street. (This land has an approval for 2 houses)

The applicant proposes to change the use of the premises to a hot and cold vegetarian food take-away. The intended hours of operation are : -

Mon-Thurs:	11.30am-2.30pm daytime	5.00pm-10.00pm
Friday:	11.30am-2.30pm daytime	5.00pm-10.30pm
Saturday:	Closed daytime	5.00pm-10.30pm
Sunday:	Closed daytime	5.00pm-10.00pm

A delivery service between 6.00pm-10.00pm is proposed.

The site is a listed building within a conservation area and a separate application has been submitted for minor alterations and an extract flue (xxxxxxxxxxx)..

The Head of Environmental Health has no objections subject to suitable extraction equipment and noise and vibration measures being installed.

The comments of the Head of Highways are awaited. There are public car parks nearby in Albert Street where staff and customers could park. The mobile delivery service is to be accommodated on adjacent land owned by the landlord.

The application has been advertised by press, site and neighbour notification letters. 11 letters, and one e-mail of objection have been received all from the adjacent sheltered elderly persons flats, St Davids Court. The reasons for objection are the potential increase in noise, privacy, rubbish, and vermin. There has been no response from any occupier of the flat that forms the remainder of the application property.

The property is detached and on the edge the defined Oldbury Town Centre area away from the main retail frontages. In that respect in principle the use would be appropriate, However, policy xxxxxxx advises that account also has to be taken of the amenity of the area, including opening hours, noise, disturbance, smell, litter, traffic and parking. Given the proximity of the sheltered flats and the approval for two houses to the rear of the property the use is not considered acceptable.

3. Reasons for Recommended Decision

Refusal, see above.

4. Relevant History

xxxxxxxxx Erection of a pair of three storey town houses (at the rear) Approved 11.02.04 xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx Installation of flue to the rear of the building,

Pending.
