

Sandwell Metropolitan Borough Council

Action Taken Under Delegated Powers

Report to the Director of Housing and Communities to enter into formal legal negotiations to acquire:
14 Beaumont Road, Wednesbury. WS10 9PN.

1 Summary Statement

- 1.1 The Council has received an enquiry, asking if the Council wish to consider the re-purchase of No 14 Beaumont Road, Wednesbury (the property).
- 1.2 A valuation has been carried out and based on this valuation a purchase price of £133,000 has been advised.
- 1.3 Officers have completed assessments of condition, required investment, current demand and projected income to determine the potential value for money of the property purchase.
- 1.4 The council is not committed to purchase the property and as an alternative could elect not to. However, based on the assessment by officers this property would be considered a suitable addition to the Council's housing stock and officers are satisfied that the offer price demonstrates best value.
- 1.5 The purchase will be funded through the Housing Revenue Account as part of the commitment to replace the Council's housing stock lost following Right to Buy sales.

2 Recommendation

- 2.1 That the Council enter into formal legal negotiations to acquire No 14 Beaumont Road, Wednesbury at the purchase price of £133,000.

Report to the Director of Housing and Communities to enter into formal legal negotiations to acquire 14 Beaumont Road, Wednesbury. WS10 9PN.
